BY SARAH TREEM

MARCH 23-APRIL 8, 2018
Directed by Kerry Young

In this powerfully poignant and moving new play, we find ourselves in 1972, before Roe v. Wade and the Violence Against Women Act. Agnes has turned her quiet bed and breakfast into one of the few spots where victims of domestic violence can seek refuge.

LAUGH & LEARN & LISTEN
Laugh out loud with Blackfriars Comedy Series' Canary in a Coal Mine and Unleashed! Improv. Listen to new plays throughout the season with the Hourglass Play Reading Series. And learn the inside scoop by attending one of our Sunday Salons with the artistic team on the first Sunday of every production!

MAY 11-27, 2018

Directed by Danny Hoskins | Musical Direction by Andy Pratt
Choreography by Mandy Hassett

The laugh-out-loud musical tells the timeless story of a recent college grad, along with his new-found friends, who struggle to find jobs, dates, and their ever-elusive purpose in life. Filled with gut-busting humor and delightful puppets (yes, puppets!), Avenue Q is a truly unique show that is part flesh, part felt, and packed with heart.

THE NEXT GENERATION OF ARTISTS
Last year we launched the Blackfriars Theatre Summer Intensive (BTSI) for rising juniors in high school through newly graduated seniors in college. BTSI is a training program open to all students, every summer, and its purpose is to train the next generation of artists.

BY DAVID MAMET

FEBRUARY 2-18, 2018

Directed by Brian Coughlin

The Pulitzer Prize and TONY-winning comedy is Mamet at his very best; writing about small-time, cutthroat real estate salesmen trying to grind out a living by pushing plots of land on reluctant buyers in a neverending scramble for their share of the American dream.

SUPPORTING OUR COMMUNITY
Blackfriars partners with over a dozen educational, artistic and community organizations each year to provide diverse programming to our patrons and artists, to give professional training opportunities to university students, and to support integral outreach to our community.
